

339.230 Restrictions on employment of minor between fourteen and eighteen.

A minor who has passed his fourteenth birthday but is under eighteen (18) years of age may be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in, about, or in connection with any gainful occupation, except:

- (1) If he is under sixteen (16) years of age, he may not be employed during regular school hours, unless:
  - (a) The school authorities have made arrangements for him to attend school at other than the regular hours, in which event he may be employed subject to regulations of the executive director of workplace standards during such of the regular school hours as he is not required to be in attendance under the arrangement; or,
  - (b) He has graduated from high school.
- (2) A minor who has passed his fourteenth birthday but is under eighteen (18) years of age, may not be employed, permitted, or suffered to work:
  - (a) In any place of employment or at any occupation, that the executive director of workplace standards shall determine to be hazardous or injurious to the life, health, safety, or welfare of such minor;
  - (b) More than the number of days per week, nor more than the number of hours per day that the executive director of workplace standards shall determine to be injurious to the life, health, safety, or welfare of such minor. The executive director of workplace standards in promulgating these regulations may make them more restrictive than those promulgated by the United States Secretary of Labor under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and its amendments, but in no event may he make them less restrictive;
  - (c) During the hours of the day that the executive director of workplace standards shall determine to be injurious to the life, health, safety, or welfare of such minor. The executive director of workplace standards in promulgating these regulations may make them more restrictive than those promulgated by the United States Secretary of Labor under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and its amendments but in no event may he make them less restrictive; and
  - (d) In, about, or in connection with any establishment where alcoholic liquors are distilled, rectified, compounded, brewed, manufactured, bottled, sold for consumption, or dispensed unless permitted by the rules and regulations of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (except he may be employed in places where the sale of alcoholic beverages by the package is merely incidental to the main business actually conducted); or in a pool or billiard room.
- (3) The executive director of workplace standards shall promulgate regulations to properly protect the life, health, safety, or welfare of minors. He may consider sex, age, premises of employment, substances to be worked with, machinery to be operated, number of hours, hours of the day, nature of the employment, and other pertinent factors. The executive director of workplace standards in promulgating these regulations may make them more restrictive than those promulgated by the United States Secretary of Labor under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and its amendments but in no event may he make them less restrictive, provided, however, these regulations shall have no effect on the definition of "gainful occupation" under KRS 339.210. To advise the executive director with respect to the regulations, the Governor shall appoint a committee of four (4) persons which shall consist of a representative from the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, the Department of Education, the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights and the Personnel Cabinet. The regulations promulgated in accordance with this section shall be reviewed by such committee whenever deemed necessary by the executive director of workplace standards.
